WE’RE REBUILDING FOR BETTER, MORE EQUITABLE AND MORE RESILIENT COMMUNITIES

Last year, we mobilized our deep partnerships with hundreds of nonprofit organizations, state and municipal leaders, and thousands of businesses to quickly deploy Covid-19 relief and recovery funds.

Now, we’re focused on empowering our communities to emerge stronger and more prepared for the future.

Your Pledge to United Way will:

• Fuel programs and services critical to our economic recovery efforts, such as food and housing assistance, early education, job training, support for low-income students impacted by remote learning, and more.

• Help hundreds of thousands through 2-1-1, United Way’s 24/7 information and referral helpline connecting those in need with community resources. Throughout the crisis, 2-1-1 fielded over one million calls for assistance with essential needs and mental health services.

• Ensure young children are enrolled in quality early childhood programs to provide a solid foundation for learning and enable parents/caregivers to get back to work and contribute to the economy.

• Empower low-income families with credit-building tools and resources and job skills training so that they can become financially stable and provide a brighter future for their children.

• Provide emergency financial assistance for essential needs such as food, heat, and housing.

• Provide youth with the social and emotional supports they need as they return to school.

Our goal is to help fuel a fast and inclusive recovery from Covid-19. We’re grateful to everyone who has joined us in this fight.
